

PREVENTION FIRST OUTCOMES FRAMEWORK

Citizens lead healthy, happy, independent lives within their own homes and communities

Proposed “Prevention First” Outcomes		Some examples for providers to consider
System – Council and NHS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reduced demand on statutory services • Financial savings • Additional investment in the social care and health system • Happier, more productive workforce 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reducing referrals to Adult Social Care & Health • Reduced repeat presentations or admissions to statutory services • Costs for working with and supporting individuals compared to the costs of statutory interventions • Additional funding and resource accompanying BCC’s investment, including volunteering
Citizens	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increased social participation • Healthier lifestyles (physical, mental and social) • Maximised income • Housing which supports independence • Carers feel more supported (as people and as carers) • Better experience of the social care system 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Case/citizen studies or stories • Citizen networks and connections • Positive changes to citizen perceptions and experiences • Satisfaction, confidence and support measures • Quality of life and independence measures • New money raised via unclaimed benefits • Employment and jobs
Communities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Access to a relevant and diverse community offer • Access to more opportunities to participate in neighbourhoods 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Citizens accessing activities and services on their doorsteps • Citizens accessing group activities in local community or community of interest • Citizen perceptions and experience of community based activity • Onward referrals to community activities, organisations and groups • Volunteering by volume and type • Active participation in decision-making, consultation and engagement
System behaviour and culture	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Better internal partnership working across Council and NHS • Better cross-sector partnership working between the statutory, voluntary, community and social enterprise sectors • Embedding of a culture which focuses on and supports the strengths, assets and positive outcomes for citizens 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Referrals received from other organisations and groups across statutory, voluntary and community sectors • Case studies, stories and examples

